

Woundedness, Healing and Ceremony: A Native American perspective

We are pleased to announce the return of Dr Robert (Rocky) Crocker to Oz. Come along and join us for a weekend of teaching and ceremony around themes of woundedness and healing for individuals, families, communities and cultures; linked to a genuine Native American spiritual tradition.

For 'old hands' deepen your knowledge and experience a further chapter of ancient wisdom. For newer folks let Rocky introduce to you an understanding of Hocokah and Inipi and what these may enrich or shift in your life.

Join Rocky for a weekend of discussion and ceremony culminating in Inipi (Sweat lodge)

When: Saturday 13th & Sunday 14th September

Where: Reefton (near Warburton) details provided upon booking

Cost: $150 (Concession $100)

Note: A donation for Inipi is included in the Workshop price. The Inipi may occur on Saturday or Sunday or both days (yet to be announced)

For Bookings please contact Sally at the Life Is Foundation on sallydebeche@hotmail.com or phone 03 9077 8668/ 0402 004 858

This event is generously supported by Coyote Institute and Life Is Foundation:

