

An evening of: Ancient Wisdom, Music, and Treats to Eat

Join Dr Robert (Rocky) Crocker M.D as he talks about:

'The Importance of Ceremony in Everyday Life'

Robert Crocker 'Rocky' M.D., is from Native American Heritage (Choctaw descent); a physician board certified by the American Board of Family Practice and also by the American Board of Integrative Holistic Medicine, is one of the founding members and current president of Coyote Institute. Dr. Crocker, of Choctaw descent and active in a Native American community in Arizona, is currently engaged in a consulting project with the Arizona Center for Integrative Medicine.

He holds the position of Clinical Assistant Professor, Department of Medicine, University of Arizona, and is teaching part-time in the Integrative Medicine Program at the University.

Rocky will discuss how Ceremony can be applied to our lives including daily rituals based on Native American tradition and Spirituality.

This event will be a Fundraiser for The Life Is Foundation www.lifeis.org.au and their 'Out Of Adversity' Initiative (Stories of Transformation That Inspire & Heal).

When: September 21st, 6.00 to 9.30pm

Where: Hocokah House, 283 Canterbury Rd Canterbury Victoria

Cost: $50.00 (Tax Deductable)

RSVP and payment due to The Life Is Foundation by 16th September (as spaces are limited)

Contact: Sally on 0402 004 858 or sallydebeche@hotmail.com